PATRICK HOUI

vita

Patrick Houi fell in love with photography while studying media techniques at university. After travelling the world and the seven seas as a photographer's assistant, he set himself up as a photographer in 2010.

Soon he was working for all the international glossy magazines as well as many renowned fashion and cosmetics brands.

His approach is modern and sensual. During his shoots he captures the magic moment. Models love working with Patrick because he makes them look gorgeous.

Patrick Houi is based in Berlin.
